

PROCLAMATION RESOLUTION 2023-R- 32

WHEREAS, Shirley A. Yannich had devoted forty years of her professional career to Public Service, and

WHEREAS, Ms. Yannich had contributed fourteen (14) years of her career to the residents of Warrington Township, including six (6) years with the Warrington Township Planning Commission, as well as eight (8) years to the Warrington Township Board of Supervisors, including three (3) years as its Chair,

WHEREAS, at the age of 43, Ms. Yannich, after raising her five children, enrolled in college where she received her Bachelor’s degree in Urban Planning and a Master’s degree in Public Administration from Rutgers University, and

WHEREAS, Ms. Yannich has passed on her vast knowledge of Planning and Zoning through her formal teaching of city planning and zoning at Penn State’s Extension Program and Delaware Valley University’s Continuing Education Program, and informally to countless members of staff, residents, members of the Board of Supervisors and members of the Planning Commission, and

WHEREAS, Ms. Yannich continued her passion for promoting education by being a member of AAUW (American Association of University Women), and

WHEREAS, Ms. Yannich revolutionized the way major decisions were made in Warrington Township by providing the public with all pertinent information on major issues, encouraging residents to participate, and ensuring that all Board of Supervisor discussions and decisions were made in public, and NOW THEREFORE, Be It Resolved, that Warrington Township hereby acknowledges the impact Ms. Yannich has committed to the betterment of government and to the Yannich family for sharing Ms. Yannich with Warrington.

ENACTED and RESOLVED, this 24th day of October, 2023.
