POLICY

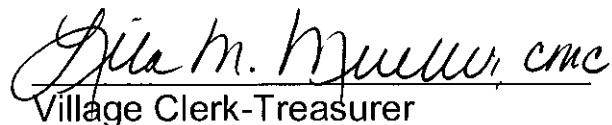

COMMUNICATIONS

The Village of Belgium encourages all of its employees and officials to be active in community and civic affairs. However, when an employee or official is communicating a personal opinion on a topic, the employee or official must make it clear that he or she is communicating it as a personal opinion and not in his or her official Village capacity and or in a manner that would indicate the opinion to be that of the Village of Belgium government. Correspondence necessary to carry out position requirements and communication authorized by the Village Board, Planning Commission, Village Board Committees, Village Attorney or Village President would be exempt from the preceding policy. Failure to abide by the preceding policy could result in disciplinary action.
