

VILLAGE OF HAMILTONPUBLIC HEARINGAPRIL 16, 1991

The public hearing on the 1991-1992 Village Budget was called to order at 7:00 pm by Mayor Pike in the Community Hall.

Present

Mayor Pike, Trustees Baker, Bergen, Erb and Fuller, and Clerk-Treasurer Kogut.

Library Budget

Fred Smart, President of the Board of Trustees for the Hamilton Public Library stated that the reasons for their budget recommendations were normal inflation and expenditures. The second reason was they had to add staff to allow the library to be open more hours. A brief discussion then followed regarding the library's funding.

Adjournment

There being no more discussion on the budget, the public hearing adjourned at 7:28 pm.
