

Business Rising as Leaves are Falling

Release Date: October 03, 2007

Hillsborough has seen a steady expansion of businesses throughout the year and with fall now upon us the business growth shows no signs of stopping. According to Hillsborough Business Advocate Gene Strupinsky, there have been numerous grand openings in the recent weeks with many more scheduled to occur over the coming months.

"Thanks to the unwavering efforts of the Economic and Business Development Commission and our Business Advocate, Hillsborough business community continues to grow at a steady pace, helping to offset the property tax burden on homeowners by expanding the commercial tax base," Mayor Anthony Ferrera stated.
