President Jonathan Harris called the hearing to order at 7:20 p.m.

Present were Councilors Rob Bouvier, Carl Donatelli, Jonathan Harris, Maureen Kelly McClay, Scott Slifka, Art Spada and Carolyn Thornberry. Councilors Kevin Connors and Al Turco were absent.

President Harris: Mr. Feldman do you have a description of this?

Mr. Feldman: Mr. Mayor for the record this is a public hearing on an amendment to the pension plan ordinance. The amendment consists of permitting the Grounds bargaining unit the opportunity to participate in an incentive to retire. It is the exact same provision that has been utilized as for other non-public safety bargaining units for an incentive for employees to retire.

President Harris: Thank you Mr. Feldman. Any questions from our Councilors? Mr. O'Brien do we have a sign up sheet?

Mr. O'Brien: There is no one signed up.

President Harris: Thank you. Any members of the public that wish to speak on this issue? Anything from Councilors? There being none we will close the public hearing.

The hearing adjourned at 7:23 p.m.
